

Please do not interfere with Indiana's attempt to save everyday citizens from the harrassment of unwanted solicitations. The difference their intervention has made is remarkable. I went from 1--15 solicitations to 1-3. This is a big improvement and not something I wish to have to deal with again. Please look to the interest and sanity of the everyday person and do not interfere with what progress has been made. Thank you!